AGRICULTURAL AND MERCHANTS' FAIR

Indications of a Great Success Are Very Marked.

ANOTHER NOVEL EVENT FOR RACING PROGRAM

Locomotives and Automobiles To Race --Inquiries of Wray Taylor Would Indicate Large Attendance.

All arrangements for the Agricultural Fair are progressing most satisfactorily under the management of Wray Taylor, Commissioner of Agriculture and Forestry.

The fair will open at 10:30 o'clock on Monday, July 28, in the drill shed, which will be properly arranged for the occasion.

There is no question whatever about there being a very large exhibit in all lines for the applications have been sent in in great numbers.

There is considerable enthusiasm among those who are interested in the foddier plants as to who will obtain the prizes. The competition will be very keen. Both pampas grass and alfalfa, new to the islands, will play a very prominent part in this section of the exhibit.

The platform at the end of the drill shed has been given over to the Kamehameha school and they will make a special exhibit which promises to be one of the most interesting features of the fair.

There have been many inquiries from the other islands and the steamers arriving previous to the fair will no doubt bring a large number of exhibits.

A miniature forest will be one of the attractions. This will be made up entirely of Hawaiian plants and will occupy a fine position in the drill shed.

The center of the shed will be occupied by an exhibit of caladiums from Mr. Damon's place at Moanalua.

The Hawaiians are taking much interest in the prizes offered for the best leis and cut flowers.

If any person desires information regarding the fair, all they have to do is to see the Commissioner of Agriculture and Forestry who is ready at all times to answer questions.

The Merchants' Fair pavilion has been entirely completed and the first people to begin the construction of its booth were the Honolulu Brewing Co. who began work this morning.

A feature of the races on Saturday afternoon will be a horseless carriage race, a novelty never before indulged in in Hawaii. Both locomotives and automobiles will be allowed. Of the former, Prince David Kawanamanoa, Norman Halstead and C. E. Moore will probably be among the entries. There may be an automobile or two in the race.

The idea of this event is to establish a rated mile. There will be no attempts at sprints. It is not probable that there will be any records broken. The time will very likely be something under three minutes.

The reports made by Wray Taylor to the Merchants' Fair committee are very encouraging and show that all expectations will be exceeded. It is expected that the steamers will bring a very fair attendance of people from the other islands.

There is some talk about a grand ball on Wednesday night of the fair week in the fair building itself, this by way of giving the whole affair an enthusiastic closing.

Of course, this could not be taken up by the fair committee itself since the responsibilities that rest upon that body are already heavy enough. It would be necessary for outside parties to take up the matter and push it along.

YACHTS WILL RACE.

The yacht races tomorrow promise to be very successful but little more wind than is present today must appear or the times made will be slow.

The yachts will start out on the cruise to Pearl Harbor this afternoon. The night will be spent at the club house and at various places on the Peninsula and at 10 o'clock tomorrow the white wings will be spread for the race back to Honolulu. The following yachts have already been entered: Princess, Myrtle, Columbia, Malibini, Pirate, Skip, Wikiwiki and Vi-ke.

A SAD BEREAVEMENT

MISS ETHEL GAY DIES THIS MORNING

Was Second Daughter of Late Mr. and Mrs. James W. Gay of Waialua--The Funeral Tomorrow.

Many people in Honolulu are sad today for the death of Miss Ethel Gay, who has been cut off in the bloom of young womanhood. She died at the Mist homestead, Nuuanu avenue, the home of her sister, Mrs. Albert Harris, at 4:20 o'clock this morning.

Miss Gay was the second daughter of the late James W. and Mary Ellen Gay of Waialua, and twenty years of age at death. She was a graceful and charming girl, very much beloved by her relatives and friends. After receiving an education at the High School, Honolulu, about a year ago she went to San Francisco, where she studied music at Hamlin School and visited friends, returning to Honolulu in May last.

While Miss Gay had suffered somewhat from headache supposedly due to eye trouble, otherwise she appeared to be in robust health until within the last four or five weeks. Then she was taken seriously ill and spinal meningitis developed, which, notwithstanding the utmost care of Drs. Cooper and McDonald, with Dr. Herbert latterly in consultation, ended the promising life.

The lamented young woman leaves three brothers and three sisters, namely: Llewellyn, Mrs. Alice Harris, Eric, Helen, Arthur and Freda. Her brother Eric and sisters Helen and Freda were spending their vacation at Samuel Parker's ranch, Waimea, Hawaii, and yesterday a wireless telegram was dispatched to bring them home by today's steamer.

By the will of their father the Gay children were bequeathed a life interest in his estate, to descend to their respective heirs. In the case of Ethel the heirs-at-law are her brothers and sisters. A considerable proportion of the land in the estate is rented to the Waialua Agricultural Company, being mostly excellent sugar cane land.

The funeral will take place from St. Andrew's Cathedral at 3 p. m. tomorrow, relatives and friends being invited to attend through this public notice. Miss Gay was for a time a member of the choir in St. Andrew's.

MR. MAGOON'S REMARKS

Editor Evening Bulletin:—By making conspicuous my heated remarks in resenting the attempt of opposing counsel to introduce a decree rendered by Judge Perry in the suit of J. D. Paris against myself as administrator of the estate of Antoine Fernandez, which decree of Judge Perry was reversed by the Supreme Court, you have conveyed to your readers an absolutely wrong impression. My remarks were addressed to the decree as being dead and of no force, in consequence of the decree having been reversed by the Supreme Court, while you have made it appear that I intentionally insulted Judge Perry by referring to his decree in a contemptuous manner. What I referred to, and there could be no mistake by any one who heard me, was that the decree was dead, dead as though it were rotting in the grave, and that no rights could be predicated upon it. I might add that the Court, of its own motion, this afternoon reversed its ruling permitting the introduction of that decree, thereby sustaining my contention that the decree was annulled by the subsequent decision of the Supreme Court.

To cast any reflection upon the integrity or ability of Judge A. Perry was the farthest from my thoughts, for there is no man in this community or elsewhere whose character for probity is higher in my opinion, nor one who bestows more conscientious thought and diligent study upon his judicial opinions than Judge Perry.

By publishing this letter you will greatly oblige, yours respectfully, J. ALFRED MAGOON, Honolulu, July 18, 1902.

HOME RULERS ARE NOW ON WAR PATH

Big Meeting Held at Kalihi Camp Last Evening.

WILCOX AND OTHERS ARE PREACHING UNITY

Another Gathering In Emma Square Tonight--Strongest Speakers of Party Will Talk To People.

The Home Rule party has started out on a vigorous campaign in the city, the result of which the leaders hope will be the cementing together of all the natives in one compact mass and the voting by them at the next election for members of the party, pledged as they already are to county and municipal government.

The first gun was fired last night when Delegate Wilcox and other speakers of the Home Rule party went out to Kalihi camp and there for over three hours held the attention of some four or five hundred natives.

The full list of speakers is as follows: Delegate Wilcox, Senator Kalaupokalani, D. Kalaupokalani Jr., Representatives Mossman and Beckley, J. A. Akina (Speaker of the House of Representatives), Rev. Oili and Kalaki. Speeches were made in two different parts of the camp at one time.

The central thought in all of the speeches was unity of purpose, the speakers pointing out to the listeners that they believed this the only solution of the problem now before the people.

Delegate Wilcox was the principal speaker of the evening. He started out with his career in Washington and dwelt on the cordial manner in which he was received by members of Congress. Because of the stand he had taken, he had been very much approved by the members.

Wilcox next sounded the call for unity, telling the natives that their very lives depended on their sticking together and sending to the Legislature men who would work for the rights of the people.

Reference was then made to the bolters from the party, the delegate stating confidently that in time they would return to the Home Rule party. So far as he was concerned, there was no personal feeling against these young men. In his judgment, they had made a great mistake and would one day come to a realization of this fact. The door of the Home Rule party was open for the young men at any time they should care to return.

The delegate next referred to the abuse which had been heaped upon him from all sides. However, this did not bother him any. He could bear it all and more.

Senator Kalaupokalani and all the remainder of the speakers sounded over and over again the call of unity. Representative Mossman spoke for a half hour or more on the achievements of the last Legislature, dwelling on the success of the Home Rule party to a much greater extent than was expected in the face of an antagonistic executive and a blockading minority of Republicans. Mossman's remarks were heartily applauded and when he had finished, the crowd wanted him to go on and say some more.

The Home Rulers will have another big meeting in Emma Square tonight. Like last night, no issues will be presented to the people. The position of the Home Rule party will be placed before the people and unity will again be preached. Among the speakers will be the following: Delegate Robert W. Wilcox, Senator D. Kalaupokalani, Edgar Cayless, D. Kalaupokalani Jr., J. M. Poepoe, Jesse P. Makalua, Representative Beckley, Rev. Oili, D. M. Kupieha, Representative Prendergast, Representative Mossman, George Markham and J. Kanuk.

The Home Rulers report that Moses Kaalika, the man who fired the first gun of dissension in the Home Rule convention, has signified his intention of going back into the Home Rule party. His final answer will be given on Monday. Reports come from the same source that others of the bolters will soon be back in their old places.

In the meantime, the young men are doing a lot of organization work and their printed matter is coming from the presses in great batches. This will soon be spread abroad. The Nakoook boys and Sol. Meheula are at work in Foster hall day and night whipping things into shape and getting everything ready for a most aggressive campaign.

Although it has been reported that the Hui Kuokoa will hold a big mass meeting in Emma Square on the night of the 24th inst., this has not yet been fully determined upon. A preliminary meeting will be held in Foster hall on Monday night for the purpose of hearing the reports of the various committees and determining on a definite course to pursue. The date of the big mass meeting will be set at that time.

The young men are very much incensed over the report in the Advertiser this morning that in its statement as to the aims of the party the Hui Kuokoa had pledged itself to support the candidates of the Home Rule party. As a matter of fact, they pledge themselves to do nothing of the kind. They state that they will vote for the best man, irrespective of party.

The Territorial Central Committee of the Republican party will meet in headquarters this evening for the purpose of considering various matters of importance. At this meeting will probably be decided the place for the holding of the convention in September. There seems to be some sentiment in favor of Hilo, but from what could be heard about on the streets today, Honolulu will be the place.

PLANS OF THE N.C.H.

SEVERAL EVENTS HAVE THEIR DATES FIXED

Skirmish Shoot and Annual Regimental Rifle Match--Another Competitive Drill Has Been Ordered.

At an informal meeting last night of the officers of the National Guard, it was decided that the regimental skirmish shoot will take place on the last Sunday in August.

Also, that the annual shoot of the regiment will take place on Thanksgiving Day. On this occasion the regiment is expected to march in a body to the range in the morning and shoot all day.

Further, it was decided that a competitive drill will be held on the 21st of February next, as Washington's Birthday falls on Sunday.

The regiment now takes a vacation from all drills until Monday, August 18. Companies may hold business meetings in the meantime.

HIS CHILDREN HUNGRY.

J. Balsey, a Filipino, appeared in the Police Court this forenoon on the charge of vagrancy. He it was who caused all the disturbance along Emma and Beretania streets at about 4 o'clock yesterday morning and cost Special Officer Elvin one of the most sprightly sprints of his whole career.

It appears that Balsey was in Sam Parker's yard after mangoes when spied by Elvin. The former saw the latter first and then began the foot race. Elvin finally caught his man.

In the Police Court this forenoon, Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth explained that the defendant was very poor and had a large family to support. He had been entirely out of work for a couple of months and though searching in every direction, had been unable to find any. He had gone to the Parker place to get a few mangoes to stave off the hunger of his children.

On this showing, a nolle prosequi was entered, and the defendant discharged. Judge Wilcox told the man that if at any time he wished to get mangoes he could go to his place and take away all he could carry but he must make his appearance in the day time.

HERRINGS IN COURT.

August Herring, the man who is alleged to have threatened people at the Honolulu plantation with a revolver appeared in the Police Court this forenoon on the charge of assault with a weapon on a Chinaman, Buk Hook by name. He was represented by Attorney Hitting upon whose motion the case was set for Tuesday next.

Keamukou, Herring's wife, alleged to have threatened the Deputy Sheriff with a revolver when he went down the road yesterday, was arrested yesterday on the charge of assault with a loaded revolver on Mr. Chillingworth. She was released on bond being furnished and appeared in the Police Court today. Mr. Hitting also appeared as attorney for the defense in this case and a continuation until Tuesday was granted.

Attorney Frank Thompson will assist the prosecution in the August Herring case.

BAR ASSOCIATION NAMES DE BOLT

As Candidate For First Judge of First Circuit.

WINS OVER JUDD BY NEARLY TWO TO ONE

Forty Members Attended the Special Meeting--President W. O. Smith Advises the Association To Branch Out.

John T. De Bolt was nominated as candidate for First Judge of the First Judicial Circuit at a largely attended meeting of the Hawaiian Bar Association. His majority over A. F. Judd was more than two to one on the first ballot. Emil C. Peters was barely in the running, while Lyle A. Dickey, Second District Magistrate, was not in it at all on the ballot.

The meeting was held in Castle & Cooke's hall at 11 o'clock this morning. W. O. Smith, president, was in the chair and Dan. H. Case, secretary at the desk. With them were present Messrs. Whiting, Davidson, Castie, S. F. Chillingworth, Kaulukou, Davis, Peterson, Brooks, Robertson C. S. Dole, Stanley, Lewis, Weaver, Matthewsman, Warren, Milverton, Deputy Attorney General Cathcart, Bigelow, A. A. Wilder, Thayer, Hemenway, Andrews, Correa, Johnson, Andrade, A. M. Brown, Holmes, Hatch, Thompson, Kane, Mea, A. W. Carter, Vivas, Marks, Achi, Magoon Rawlins, McClanahan and Russell, the last-named not a member though a practitioner. There were forty votes in the meeting.

President Smith, on calling the meeting to order, stated its special business to be the recommending to the President of the United States of a candidate for the First Judgeship of the First Judicial Circuit. To facilitate a selection a sub-committee of the Association had been given the duty of presenting the names of available candidates. The names submitted were: Emil C. Peters, John T. De Bolt, A. F. Judd and Lyle A. Dickey. It was not understood, however, that the selection was necessarily confined to these four names.

George A. Davis moved a resolution to the effect that a ballot be taken and that the two lowest names on the first ballot be dropped, when the Association should ballot again and the candidate receiving a majority of the votes be recommended by memorial to President Roosevelt and Attorney General Knox for appointment.

J. L. Kaulukou hoped the Association would not be fooled, asking if it were certain a vacancy was to be filled.

The president in reply stated that Judge Humphreys had publicly announced his resignation over his own signature in a writing filed in the courthouse. Answering a question by Enoch Johnson the president said there was no intention of restricting the choice, adding, after he had named tellers, other nominations might be made in balloting but names other than those submitted must appear on the first ballot.

The resolution having carried, C. F. Peterson and S. K. Kane were appointed tellers, and the first ballot resulted: De Bolt, 25; Judd, 12; Peters, 3.

Mr. Kaulukou, on the call from the chair for a second ballot, submitted that Mr. De Bolt having received a majority of the total vote cast should be made the unanimous nominee. It was ruled, however, that the resolution demanded a second ballot on the two highest names.

The second ballot gave Judd two and De Bolt one of the Peters votes, thus: De Bolt, 26; Judd, 14.

W. L. Stanley asked for a rendering of the resolution as to the memorial.

Mr. McClanahan, on the reading of the resolution returned to memorializing the Attorney General.

President Smith suggested that the memorial be addressed to the President and a copy of it sent to the Attorney General. On this proposal being accepted by the mover, it was so ordered and the president announced the business of the meeting closed. He congratulated the members on the auspicious meeting. It was one of the largest the Association had ever held. He hoped the Association would continue to have good meetings and not only deal with matters pertaining to the administration of justice but consider matters of importance to the community.

OFFICERS REMEMBERED

CUP AND GOLD MEDALS FROM CO. F MEMBERS

Presentation Speech to Captain Johnson and His Two Lieutenants Was Made By Colonel Jones.

There was a great surprise in store for Captain Johnson, First Lieutenant Short and Second Lieutenant Carlyle of Company F, National Guard of Hawaii, after the regimental drill last night. The volunteers all marched back to the drill shed, but, in place of disbanding at once, the companies were drawn up in line, and then, Col. Jones, stepping to the front, presented Captain Johnson with a fine $50 silver cup and a gold medal and the two lieutenants with a gold medal apiece.

Col. Jones explained to the officers in well chosen words that the gifts were from the boys of the company, who wished to show in some small measure their appreciation of the efforts in their behalf of Captain Johnson and Lieutenants Short and Carlyle. The boys had felt that something more than words was necessary to express their feelings in the matter of the success which the company had achieved in the recent prize drill. The three officers were simply overwhelmed, but recovered themselves in time to thank the boys for their great kindness.

In a continuation of remarks by Col. Jones the commanding officer said he wished to thank Company F for the splendid record it had made during the past three years. He expressed the hope that the splendid percentage of 88 secured by Company F in the last prize drill would be repeated next year.

After the presentation, refreshments were served in the room of Company F and the remainder of the evening was spent in singing and speech-making.

Among the arrivals from Hilo and way ports in the Kinau today were the following: Hon. and Mrs. Cecil Brown, G. P. Wilder, W. F. Hyman, Mr. and Mrs. A. Haneberg, Miss Kate Vida, Mrs. Mary Mott-Smith, Brd. F. M. Wakefield, Chas. Notley, H. C. Brown, C. F. Eckardt, E. Gay, Mrs. E. Norrie, Miss Emma Lyons, L. Kentwell, J. Maguire, Col. W. H. Cornwell and W. J. Coelho.

Prof. Henry W. Farnham of Yale has presented to the University of Georgia a number of revolutionary documents belonging to his ancestor, Abraham Baldwin, a celebrated Georgia statesman, including a speech delivered by Mr. Baldwin in Savannah in 1785, outlining the proposed university of Georgia.

The Russian Arctic explorer, Dr. Alexander von Bunge, declares in a recent magazine article that Andree was a victim of international rivalry, the success of the Norwegian, Nansen, having led him impetuously to undertake his perilous trip, in the hope of surpassing him, and thus putting Sweden in the lead.

While this point was pending, the jury was excused until Monday morning.

The Globe Navigation Company's steamer Tampico arrived in port about noon today and docked at the Pacific Mail wharf.
